Upon logging in to your web account, your personal home page is displayed.

1. A list of links is displayed on the left side of the screen. Pages you can access from your personal home page: Reading First Events, My Account, Email Verification, Frequently Asked Questions, Professional Development, and Log Out. When you have time, please explore these links.

2. If you are registered for a pending event, information about that event is displayed on your personal home page.

3. At the bottom of many pages, there is a link for contacting our office - your Reading First Professional Development team.

4. If you are not enrolled in a pending event, your home page will display that message.

5. When you are finished using your account, don’t forget to "Log Out".

For security, sometimes your account is automatically ended.
