Comprehension & Vocabulary Workshop

Presenter: Dr. Kevin Flanigan, Westchester State University
Date: Saturday, October 14, 2006
Time: 9:00am – 3:30pm
Place: Southwest Higher Education Center, Abingdon, VA
For: Anyone who has a certificate from attending a Reading First Academy

In this workshop we will:

(1) Summarize the principles of comprehension and vocabulary instruction.

(2) Practice research-based comprehension and vocabulary strategies for the primary grade learners.

(3) Discuss these strategies and how they might be differentiated across grade levels and student needs.

See what previous participants had to say:

"Useful, easy, and effective activities I can use in the classroom."

"He is excellent!! Bring him back!!"

"Kevin's ideas were practical, easy to make, and build on what I already do."

"Kevin was well versed and experienced. He knew what he was talking about."

"Variety of strategies that I can REALLY use!"

"Ready-to-use strategies, easy to make, use, and manage, cross curricular - too much to say about what I liked best."

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. Enrollment is limited to 35.
